Join Thigbe to Lower Your Electricity Bill

We have spent the last 28 years saving money and freeing up time for big organizations (like hospitals), and we thought it was about time someone made it easier for the smaller businesses, too. That's why we gather people together and then negotiate on their behalf. Because we believe electricity shouldn't be hard. Save money while also supporting local charities. 20% of our small fee goes to the Thigbe partnered charity you choose.
